

Gogo OnePhone

The advanced phone you want.
The only phone you need.

Gogo® OnePhone
In-flight voice

Exceptional sound quality.
Noise reduction.
Touchscreen ease.
Global reach.

Communications have advanced at breakneck speeds. So using cabin handsets shouldn't feel like you're going back in time. With the Gogo OnePhone, you get the modern phone you want, and the only phone you need, to stay connected to your business, life and world.

The sleek Gogo OnePhone handset uses proprietary technology to provide exceptionally clear sound quality. It also delivers business aviation's most advanced noise-reduction experience. And its big, bright touchscreen display and Android-based platform make it fully user-friendly.

The Gogo OnePhone is also the only phone available today that is globally compatible with all three of our airborne networks: Gogo Biz®, SwiftBroadband and Iridium®. So you can talk easily, and seamlessly, wherever you fly.
